The Consell de Formentera human resources office reports that a call has gone out for three career positions with Formentera Local Police. Applicants must be eligible for C1 public service employment and successful candidates will be determined based on the outcome of a public exam.

Recruitment has also begun for a new reserve list to meet the urgent need for temporary members of the Consell de Formentera fire brigade. Candidates will be hired on a group contract basis.

The terms of the two calls for applicants have been posted to the website of the Balearic Employment Office (BOIB) and can be viewed here , in the job offers section of the Consell de Formentera website.

16 October 2020
Department of Communications
Consell de Formentera