

Today the initial list of mooring assignments at Estany des Peix was posted on the Consell de Formentera bulletin board.

Starting tomorrow and over the next seven working days, 14 December inclusive, applicants may submit new documentation that has been requested and is necessary to obtain the mooring, and present comments.

Those who have submitted the required documentation should wait for the final list to be made public.

Once the final list is published, individuals who have been offered a place have seven working days to accept it.
