

Consell de Formentera premiere Alejandra Ferrer sat down today with Chamber of Commerce local representative Juan Manuel Costa Escanellas to sign a yearly collaborative agreement in support of training, market research and communications for island businesses. Also on hand at the signing was deputy premiere and commerce chief Ana Juan.

Under the arrangement the Consell de Formentera will offer up €7,000, money that the Chamber of Commerce pledges to put to a range of uses like consulting; vocational training; language instruction and courses on topics such as trade, new technologies, entrepreneurship, workplace safety and business creation, management and financing.
