

The Formentera Council's social welfare department reports that the dependent care facility (Centre de Dia) will be the site of the eighth edition of the Tramuntana course on at-home attention.

Candidates must be at least 30 years old and currently unemployed not to mention have completed basic secondary education. Enrolment, open until February 27, can be processed in person at the local job-seekers' bureau (SOIB) or at the following link: <https://soib.es/selecciones-programa-soib-30-formacio-i-ocupacio/>

Those contracted will receive paid training from March 15-December 14 and be placed in positions on the Council's home assistance service. Eight positions are available and courses will take place from 8.00am to 3.00pm.
