This Thursday, 28 November, psychologist Alba García will be at the centre of the third xerrada, or “chat”, in a nine-part series for families and teachers hosted by Formentera’s Department of Social Welfare with support from the teachers’ resource centre, or CEP. The lecture kicks off at 5.00pm in the Centre de Dia conference room, and daycare will be available for children 3 and up.

The “Chats for families and teachers” series started in October and will conclude on 7 May.
