

The Formentera Office of Local Development is pleased to report that selection processes for three positions at the Consell de Formentera –two children's educators and a labour relations manager– are currently under way as part of the 2022 round of SOIB Jove Qualificats – Local Entities programme. Applications will be accepted until 9 October.

The programme of the Balearic Employment Office (Servei d'Ocupació de les Illes Balears, SOIB) is designed to promote employment among jobless 18- to 30-year-olds registered with the SOIB and listed in the National Youth Guarantee System. Candidates must have completed university studies or possess accreditation from a higher vocational training programme. Previous work experience is not required.

Contracts will begin by 15 October and last one year.

Applicants are encouraged to visit the SOIB website by 9 October to register and learn about the offer.
